AS THE WHEEL TURNS

~ Joan Hansen was in Vegas for a meeting (yes it is the truth). She also had happy dollars for Andy Schellekens great Excel list of attendance that could just be cut and pasted to the bulletin

~ Nancy Macey was happy with the great work Norm Brown did on her lighting in her home in Whistler. Laureen McCleery also had a good lighting thank you

~ Bob Taylor was happy to have used the will package that he bought at the auction from Ulf Ottho - a Ladner Rotarian

~ Dave Hamilton, Doug Thomas and Garry Shearer had fun in Hope curling. Garry was awakened at 3:15 am by loud knocking at his door.

~ Jim Julius had $20 for his three week cruise around South America, and when he kept talking he was forced to put in another $20.

~ Boyd Ivens commented on the "friend or enemy" category for a navigator at the upcoming car rally. Boyd speculated that it might start one way and end the other !!

~ Natalie Zigarlick was in Seattle, and was stopped by US Customs again on her way back into Canada.

PROGRAM

A club meeting is always a great chance to catch up on what we are doing in the community. Murray Lott began the Youth Exchange discussion by introducing Greg Scott, our outbound student for next year. Greg is in Grade 10 and among other things, plays the bagpipes. Roger Pryke then updated us on the past students we have sent out : Kim Veldhuis is finishing med school in Amsterdam, Marcus Csaky is finishing his masters in computer science, Kyle Cooper is at UBC, Andrea Nyedli is at UBC in International studies, David read is travelling and at University, Jason Tobias is at U of Alberta. Luzi Etter had his calendar there to be filled in with events – let's all get to know him.

Also on the agenda was funding for Community Service projects. After having a few years with no projects to participate in, we have been swamped with park projects this year and have depleted the budget. That's a good thing – as now it will give us incentive to build up the fund again, and perhaps someone can come up with an innovative fund raising idea – one that's also fun.

STUFF

ACC sales are slow, so all are encouraged to contact as many as they can for sales.

Would all members please check the accuracy of their e-mail address both in the roster and on the website www.versys.net/rotary/members.html If there are any errors or omissions, please send an e-mail to Keith Dinwoodie kfd@vancouver.quik.com with the corrections. The website "Members" page has a button to help you accomplish this task.

Paul Dhillon has completed the FIRST EVER CROSS CANADA ROTARACT NEWSLETTER. It is quite a large file but he hopes that most of us will take the time to download, print, and distribute it. He believes that this form of media will help make Rotaract in our Zone a vibrant organization. Please respond with your thoughts and idea's for the next edition which is tentatively planned for release in April of 2002. The newsletter will hopefully be available on our website for download in early February. Please visit www.rotaract.ca for more information.

Murray Lott paid $35 when Norm Brown auctioned off a basket of coffee from the "little deli in the mall". Thanx Murray.

The Object of Rotary

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise;

FIRST - The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

SECOND - High ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his/her occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

THIRD - The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his/her professional, business and community life;

FOURTH - The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional men and women united in the ideal of service.

New Member Inducted - 73

Gordon Thompson was inducted as the "newest Rotarian", by Roger Pryke. Howard McCarthy is his sponsor; Gordon has been with Rotary for many years. Welcome Gordon.

SERGEANT-at-Arms

S@A Laureen McCleery began by thanking her judge and greeter

Pink File –Murray Lott & Bill Kushnir

Book of the week went to Guenther Schreiber, but he has to share with Murray Lott who had already left – title was "A conspiracy of a tall man"

It's a good thing – Gordon Thompson for praising Hollandia Deli. Dennis Power also did same and both received a sample of Russian Potato Salad. Graham Mallett got the flower bouquet

2nd in line for breakfast was Cindy Philip. Bruce Tuttle paid a sad dollar for being one number away from a $3000 lottery win. Bob Malcolm had a college scarf, and Bob Taylor paid a musical dollar for the great start to O Canada. Gail Hussman and Bill Learmont were criticising Martha Stewart. Joan Hansen paid again for letting Andy Schellekens do all the work on the attendance. Laureen McCleery borrowed Andy Schellekens truck and listed the many "things" that she found in it – a tool box on wheels. Roger Pryke paid a humor dollar.
