

Sergeant-At-Arms Report

Howard McCarthy and Joan Hansen were thanked for being Greeter and Judge, It's a Good Thing went to Greg Hoover for cleaning up the storage locker and the Book of the Week, "Trouble with Money" was presented to banker John Paradis.

With only a couple of minutes available, S-A-Arms Laureen still managed to hit up a number of Rotarians for loonies. Leslie Abramson was praised for a great job doing decorations but paid for valet parking and getting two of her guests name wrong; Cindy Phillip was second in the buffet line; Steve Cutt paid for his Valentine's Day tie; Bill Montgomery was seen looking good during the week and Myles Noel was spotted in a great looking jogging t-shirt. The Pink File generated loonies from Bill Kushnir and Greg Hoover.

The Floral Industry

Tony Grath of David L. Jones was our speaker last week and he gave us some insight on the floral industry after a few Valentine's Day anecdotes. He also mentioned he's known Leslie for 25 years and he has many stories. Flowers are given to express feelings and senses (smell, touch and beauty) that often can't be put into words. They are used for everything from congratulations to condolences. In European countries if women don't get flowers they wonder what's wrong, in Canada when women get flowers they wonder what's wrong. In B.C. many flowers are imported including roses from Mexico and South America. The investment for Valentine's Day flowers is made long before the day and the florist hopes everything goes well. Valentine's Day is the longest work day of the year for a florist.

 of the things we think, say or do,

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
