AS THE WHEEL TURNS

~ Henk Veldhuis started off the morning by complaining bitterly about all of the women of the club sitting together at one table. It just happened to be International Women's week.

~ Norm Brown spent a week in Mexico, and he is happy that his daughter is doing her PhD.

~ President Don was happy to have participated in the car rally, and was caught using the ladies room at one of the stops (Cindy Philip caught him)

~ Graham Mallet was sad that Nancy Macey had "borrowed" a place setting from his table rather than sitting with him. Nancy hugged Graham and Ron Bollen and all was OK.

~ Joan Hansen, Jim Northey and Gail Hussman paid happy dollars for the win at the car rally (Gail paid for her hubby Paul. Joan is selling her services as a navigator for next year, and Jim is selling driving

~ Marilyn Rafter bought one of the silent auction items at Valentine's, and was pleased with the dinner she had at Brewsters.

~ Everett Baker entered the rally with a limo and three women navigators - the limo apparently was 19 km long

~ Paul Dhillon was street racing with Eleanor McWhannel and he won

~ Roger Pryke has finally finished his move to the new house, and was chauffeur for his son.

~ Ed Lye was off to Calgary for the Brier

PROGRAM

Supt Lyle Beaudoin from the Delta Police Dept joined us to talk about policing in Delta. Lyle grew up in North Delta and is very pleased to be part of the local police force. He says that our force is the best in the area....slogan is "NO CALL TOO SMALL" . Since each call takes longer to finalize today due to changes in the law, we need more constables today. Delta is very much involved in cases all over the Lower Mainland and sharing information all the time.

Lyle tells us that Tsawwassen is the safest community in which to live, in the area.

STUFF

The car rally report from Bob Cooke was that it was a huge success and a lot of fun to boot. 13 vehicles and 35 people participated – all arrived back safely. The SPCA was the lucky winner here...they gained $62 in donations from our stops to count cages. Several awards were presented for dubious results in the rally - The Dinwoodies got the loosen up award for arguing with the judge upon arrival. The van Pykstra's got the dirtiest car award for a few specs of dust on frank's Mercedes. The Philip's got the "lucky dice" for Cindy's comment about stopping for a quickie when they cruised by home in North Delta. But with a top score of 39, the coveted "spare tire" trophy went to the 20/20 team consisting of Jim Northey, Paul Hussman, and Joan Hansen. The challenge is on for next year.

ACC sales are only at 6800, and we need to reach 17,000 by the end of March in order to get 50% of sales. There will be a draw for a night at Semiahmoo among all of the purchasers. The morning putting contest only had a few holes sunk and gold ball prizes went to Spencer Green, Taeko Takahashi, Eleanor McWhannel, and Joan Hansen. The big prize of a crying towel (golf towel) went to Henk Veldhuis.

A LITTLE BIRDIE TOLD ME

Apparently our own Jim Northey is having a birthday party to celebrate his big "gold card" / "OAP" birthday. Date is March 29 - 7 – 11 pm - Tsatsu Shores Common room. Come one come all - no gifts.

SERGEANT-at-Arms

S@A Laureen McCleery began by thanking her judge Spencer Green and greeter Henk Veldhuis

Pink File – all the ladies in the "Women in Business" section of the Optimist.

Good thing – Henk Veldhuis for being so cheerful about the ladies table. S@A Laureen paid for having to resort to "pinching" the flowers from the golf course bouquet.

Book of the week - "Trouble" was presented to Everett Baker – Everett in his huge limo was seen to takea wrong turn at the very beginning of the course.

2nd in line was Jerry Kilcup. Fashion dollar goes to Guenther Schreiber for looking "hot"; Bryan Kelly was imitating "the men in Black"; Dave Hutton was wearing red white and blue, though we had to use our imagination somewhat. From the car rally – Laureen levied the following fines – Spencer Green snoozing during the rally and leaving the show to his spouse; Greg Hoover for his outfit for the rally, especially the car decals; John Eastwood for his legal challenge threat.
