PROGRAM

Sam Thiara, a former GSE team member to Kent & Sussex England, joined us for his wake up laughs, as well as to inform us about the 2010 Olympic bid. The five main players in the bid to gain the right to host the 2010 Olympics are BC, Canada, the IOC, Whistler, & Vancouver. The pay off for all is the legacies such as the sports venues, tourism, and improved transportation. There are still many hopes to jump through before the decision in July 2003. The lower mainland is scheduled to host 70% of the events including the opening and closing ceremonies in BC Place. It is expected that there will be 10,000 media, 5000+ athletes, and 12,000+ volunteers involved. Info is available at www.winter2010.com

STUFF

Rotaract sponsored a 3 on 3 Soccer tournament May 4 & 5 at SDSS.

ROTARY CORNER

District Conference

The District Conference is fast approaching, and now is the time to make sure that you have booked time off work and have registered to attend. Have you also arranged to get there?? What better way to learn about Rotary here in our district and around the world. Meet fellow Rotarians and share a learning experience with them while having an incredible amount of fun.

For registration information contact:
