AUCTION NOV 4

Dennis Power reminded us that it is now the DEADLINE to have items to himself or Andy. Remember to check the work schedule for your assignment.

PROGRAM

Our own Bill Montgomery told us of his life before Rotary. He is from Edmonton, and early on dabbled in school programs in Engineering, Medicine, and finally found his way to Chemistry.

Chemistry is his line today - Bill told us about his Blue Heron Water and Waste Management company. He explained to us how much of the BC population still relies on on-site water and waste treatment options. Waste water is a concern when it is returned to the environment with little or no treatment, as it ends up as nitrates which kill shellfish and other organisms here in the ocean. The topic is rather extensive and unfortunately Bill ran out of time. But we all hope to avoid a situation like in Walkerton, Ontario.

UPCOMING PROGRAMS

Oct 26 - TBA

Nov 2 - it's a secret for now

Nov 9 - Point Roberts

Nov 16 - DG Dave Kirk's Visit

Nov 23 - AGM

STUFF

There has been a good response on children's books being collected for Mexico. We also received a letter of thanx from Stephanie Fera for the scholarship. Roger also read a letter from Anne Marie Hansen in Thailand, and an e-mail from Lise expressing her pleasure at being home again a curfew-less.

A new brochure is now ready – use it to attract new members and to explain what we are all about.

Don Michiel reminded us to think about new members - and also to keep our attendance up.

EXCHANGE STUDENT

Laura Kuen gave us a short update in her newly aquired and very proficient English. She is from Brussels, Belgium – the Flemish part. She finds school here to be much easier – at home classes were 8 hours every day, but she is taking English and other FUN courses only, since she has already finished high school. At home she has two sisters and a brother.

SERGEANT-at-ARMS

S@A Greg Hoover fined Boyd as he was happy that Boyd had not painted his belly to resemble a jack o'lantern.

Late were Nancy Macey and Blair Ledingham who was eating breakfast as we all left??? Not signed in were Guenther Schreiber & Bill Kushnir. No Name tags were noted on Malcolm Ashford, Dave Lay & Roger Pryke.

Red File: Malcolm Ashford was finally there to be fined for an ad in a hotel brochure and for a video replay comment on hockey. Also in the news were Greg Clarke, Nancy Macey, Jim Julius, and Bill Kushnir. Greg Hoover had another of his famous Letters to the editor – this one commenting on the Boys & Girls club earned him a bouquet of flowers from Leslie Abramson, and questions from his spouse??
