Diefenbaker Park project was 14,000 and Fred Gingell park was 3500.

Ed Lye updated us on the Finances for last year, mentioning that we have finally spent much of the surpluses of the past years when no viable projects were available.

Leslie Abramson gave a moving introduction of one of the excellent speakers from the Convention in May. Involved with youth all his career, and presently with the Boys & Girls Clubs, former Rotarian Keith Pattinson became our newest Paul Harris Fellow.

Congratulations Keith

Rules of the Golf Course

NO BLUE JEANS
NO CELL PHONES

SERGEANT-at-Arms

S@A Laureen McCleery thanked Murray Lott as Judge (hey Murray is that a position you aspire to??) and Keith Dinwoodie as Greeter.

It's a good thing – Nancy Wells for organizing the Christmas tree decorations

Pink File – Ed Lye and Bob Cooke were in the newspaper

First in line was Roger Pryke & Wayne Connorton. Frank van Pykstra paid his "driving safely" dollar. Ed Lye and Garry Shearer helped with the Deli when Laureen was getting lunch ready for the Park workers. Dave Hamilton was whining about having to leave a wine and cheese early. President Don was assessed a football $ since he moved the Board meetings to Wed nights for the winter. Jim Julius paid a Thanksgiving dollar – US of course. It was suggested that Ed Lye and David Kalinovich can get a seniors discount at Hollandia Deli rather than parking on a bench in the Mall. President Don was also fined for starting the meeting late - better check that watch Don, that's the second time. President Don's favourite colour is blue..... so all wearing some item of clothing in that colour paid a dollar on the way out.
